

How to Teach Poetry Teacher Lesson Plan #12

Course: How to Teach Poetry	Lecture 12: Mentor Modeling (12 of 15)
TEACHER GOALS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Participate in writing prompts ● Become a truthful and honest educator ● Mentor and relate to students
STUDENT GOALS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Become comfortable sharing personal truths by listening to teachers' stories ● Exercise teacher mentality ● Practice taking charge of a lesson
TEACHER DO NOW	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Ask students to communicate as a class to create a poetry prompt for the teacher(s) to respond to
STUDENT DO NOW	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● As a class, review PowerPoetry's 7 Ways to Teach Poetry Lessons with PowerPoetry to understand how to adopt a teaching role in the classroom ● Discuss with classmates the best way to go about choosing a poetry writing prompt for the teacher(s) to participate in and brainstorm a specific prompt ● Arrange classroom to create a warm, supportive, interactive space for students and teachers to communicate
MINI-LESSON/ACTIVITY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For this lesson, the roles of students/teacher(s) will be reversed and students will be able to practice having the top authoritative role in the classroom ● For the first 20 minutes of class, students will collectively create a writing prompt for themselves and the teacher(s) to answer ● The prompt should provoke deep thought and deal with a type of personal struggle and be able to be

	answered using resources (Tip/Action Guides, etc.) from PowerPoetry.org <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● For the next 12-15 minutes of class each individual in the classroom will write a poem in response to the prompt ● The remainder of class will be devoted to reading work aloud ● The teacher(s) will be chosen to read their work aloud ahead of the students to generate a sense of equality, truthfulness, and relatability between teacher(s) and students
SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIAL	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● PowerPoetry's 7 Ways to Teach Poetry Lessons with PowerPoetry http://www.powerpoetry.org/actions/7-ways-teach-poetry-lessons-power-poetry
HOMEWORK	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Each student will create a detailed outline for a future lesson plan using the Guide reviewed in class